MISSOULA-- The University of Montana women's tennis team goes to Oregon this weekend to compete against three different schools. The grueling schedule begins Friday afternoon in Portland with a match against Portland State. Saturday morning at 9 the team meets the University of Oregon at Eugene, then they're off to Oregon State in Corvallis to play at 2 that same afternoon.

In their last meet, at Washington State University, the women did quite well, taking both doubles matches and all but one of the singles matches. However, coach Jodi Leslie said that the matches this weekend would give a more accurate picture of the way the team is shaping up. "Players on the coast are generally stiffer competition since they're able to practice all year round," Leslie said. "After this weekend, we should be able to tell how we'll do this year," she added.

Coming up are two tournaments in May, an invitational tourney in Salt Lake City May 11-13 and the Pacific Northwest Tournament May 20-21.
